Even though the Library was closed for two full days and an evening in December during the installation of a new furnace, the circulation shows an increase of over a thousand this year, and many new names have been added to the Borrower List.

A District Meeting was held in June at the Davis Library in Exeter. A tour of the Academy buildings, a talk on contemporary manuscripts and a Description of the bookmobile service with pictures taken along the route were the outstanding features of the session.

The Book Week Poster, "Books Build Character," was displayed on the Juvenile Bulletin Board. Books have been borrowed for patrons from the State Library at Concord and from neighboring libraries.

The following periodicals are in the Library: American Magazine, American Boy, American Girl, American Legion and Auxiliary Magazines, Atlantic Monthly, Baseball, Bird Lore, Child Life, Children's Activities, Christian Century, Commentator, Consumers' Union, Current History, Exeter News Letter, Flower Grower, Ford News, Fortune, Good Housekeeping, Hampton Union, House and Garden, Hygeia, Jack and Jill, Ladies Home Journal, Mercury, Nation, National Geographic, News Week, Parents Magazine, Parent-Teachers Magazine, Popular Mechanics, Popular Science, Readers Digest, Roscirusian, Rural New Yorker, Saturday Evening Post, Scientific American, Specialty Salesman, Telephone Topics, Time, Union Signal, Wall Street, Woman's Home Companion, and the Yankee.

REPORT OF THE SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS

To the School Board of Hampton, N. H.:

I herewith present to you my annual report as Superintendent of your Schools. It is financially and statistically an accounting of the work of the school year from July 1, 1939 to June 30, 1940. Since the organization of our schools changed with the current year there will be a partial report of the new set-up.

The school year began September 4, 1940 with an enrollment of 442. This compares with the 1939 figure of 392. The list of the September registration for the past six years will prove interesting.

SEPTEMBER ENROLLMENT BY YEARS

	1935	1936	1937	1938	1939	1940
Pupils	341	336	370	378	392	442
Tuition Pupils	32	27	34	32	37	57

It is evident that the new High School has increased the number of pupils attracted from other towns. The average of the past five years is 32, while this year the corresponding number is 57. Of this total number of fifty-seven, 41 are in the high school. A careful checking of each individual pupil indicates that because of the new building we have secured nineteen more tuition pupils, thereby increasing our income by $1805.00. During the current year this added enrollment has been taken care of with no increase in the teaching staff. It should not be done next year. At least one additional teacher will be needed.

There are at least two objective means for judging the efficiency of a school system—standardized tests given at regular intervals during the school year and the work of the graduated pupils in higher institutions of learning. By either criterion, Hampton Schools are good schools. Scholarship standardized tests are given to each pupil in our schools to determine his accomplishment in relation to the national standards of his grade and to determine his weak and his strong subjects. With these points known, a definite path of progress can be plotted. By centering effort upon the child's individual difficulties a larger percentage of his ability is usefully employed. To use added time for teaching a pupil what he already knows is wasteful. To attempt the next step in a learning process when the previous step has not been mastered is equally wasteful. It is this balancing of values which test results help to obtain.

THE TEACHING STAFF

Hampton now employs sixteen regular teachers, five in the Academy and ten in the Centre School, with Miss Tobey dividing her time between the two schools. With two exceptions the staff is the same as last year. With the resignation of Miss Ruth Richardson, our assistant teacher, Miss Marjorie Libbey of Wolfeboro, N. H., was employed. She is a teacher of three years' experience. She has been a great help to the teachers of the rooms where there has been a crowded condition. Mrs. Evelyn Squire resigned as teacher of our second grade after fourteen years in the Hampton schools. To carry on her work, Miss Myriel Angwin was employed. She is a graduate of Keene Teachers' College and had taught four years in the primary division of the Hampton Falls School. I believe she is arranging her work with that of Miss Marston and Miss Norton so that the three grades form a unit. In this way, progress through these earliest and most critical grades is as smooth as possible. At the end of three years our pupils have become good school citizens. They have learned to work together and play together. It is the foundation of all later learning—in school or out.

The second group of three grades is in charge of Miss Perkins, Miss Whitney, and Miss Bartlett. In grades 4, 5 & 6, the children continue training in the fundamentals, Reading, Writing, Arithmetic, Geography and History. In these grades self-help and independent thinking are encouraged so that the pupils may enter the Junior High School enabled to apply these tool subjects to the study of their environment. I believe the teaching staff of Hampton would be difficult to equal in its present set-up. It is my recommendation that so far as possible this staff be kept in the service of the district.

As the tempo of life becomes more rapid, a broader scope of interest must be acquired by the people who would retain a rational view of life. It is increasingly important that the schools should meet this problem. Everywhere added attention is being given to Music and Art, formal subjects in the schools. Hampton has for years been in the forefront of this movement. We are indeed fortunate to have the services of Mrs. Coombs and Mrs. Naves.

The salary schedule of the teaching staff, the subjects taught and service experience are tabulated below.

THE JUNIOR HIGH SCHOOL

The junior high school now consists of grades seven and eight only—the ninth grade being housed in the new senior high building. This was not only an advance from an administrative view but, in Hampton, was a necessity because of the overcrowded condition of the Centre School.

The new organization necessitated the transfer of one teacher to the high school, a new alignment of subject teaching and an entirely different physical education program. We were fortunate in having teachers who were qualified to teach a variety of subjects so that adjustment was fairly simple.

Of the physical education program, Mr. Edward Hazen, the Principal says:

“Our physical education program has been greatly improved this year. The shift from inter-school to intramural football worked out very well. About half of the boys in grade seven and eight took part. This was a considerably higher percentage than in previous years. The boys played an interesting series of games under Mr. Eastman’s direction. The other half of the boys under Mr. Carter’s direction had regular physical education classes in which calisthenics, touch football and other activities were carried on.

Under the direction of Miss Tobey and Miss Smith we have had one hundred percent participation in physical education by the girls for the first time. During the fall months calisthenics and games were enjoyed out of doors. Two afternoons each week our boys’ basketball team has the use of the High School floor from 4:15 to 5:30.”

HAMPTON ACADEMY & HIGH SCHOOL

Of the use of the new building the Headmaster is best qualified to speak. Quotations from his report follow:

The removal from the old Academy building to the new modern High School was made with little difficulty due to the excellent cooperation of all concerned. Much of our effort has been consumed in getting new equipment into proper use. Naturally it has been a pleasure to see the expansion of our activities.

‘The teaching staff has remained without change except of course the addition of Mrs. Stevens who came with the ninth grade. I am glad to state that I have had the wholehearted cooperation of the entire staff. They are capable teachers, and I value their assistance. I especially wish to commend their willingness to give of their time for extra-curricular activities. Practically our entire physical education program, dramatics, band, orchestra and social activities has been carried on outside of regular school hours.

The enrollment of the school has been close to 130 all during the year. We have the smallest senior class for several years, only nineteen members. According to the reports from our usual sources of pupils, the entering class next year will be between 50 and 60 possibly more. That means an enrollment of at least 160 next fall and additional supplies and equipment will be necessary. If a vocational course is added the enrollment will be even larger.

“One of the outstanding changes in our new situation has been the activities in our new gymnasium-auditorium. All during the year the larger music classes have met there. Our school assemblies, plays and social events have made use of the facilities. The most outstanding of all has been the program in basketball which has not been possible before. A varsity and junior varsity for boys and a varsity team for girls have played schedules. There have been about 25 boys and 15 girls practicing regularly besides periods set aside for the junior high school physical education classes and basketball teams.

"Of last year's graduating class, four are attending the University of New Hampshire, one attends a business college, three attend preparatory schools and three are taking post-graduate work.

"The state testing program for the past year shows Hampton as above the state average in intelligence, silent reading, and English forms. No other state tests were given.

In the reports of the State Board of Education on the records made by our graduates at college and teachers' colleges as compared to their high school records, I find that our graduates have done better than the average for the state. Considering the fact that we have entered a larger percentage than is usual the figures are gratifying."

A study has been made of the present employment of our recent graduates with the purpose of determining how the Academy and High School can best serve its pupils. In this study the graduates of the past ten years were considered. While recognizing that conditions were abnormal, it seems that the results are significant. The facts show that approximately one half of our graduates during these years continued their education in some advanced school. These were divided into the following groups.

Percentage attending Liberal Arts College	16
Percentage attending Business or Secretarial School	13½
Percentage attending Teachers' College	6
Percentage attending Religious School	1½
Percentage attending Technical School	1½
Percentage attending Army & Navy	1½

These figures show an unusually large proportion who secure in our schools the groundwork which carries them successfully into advanced work. It is certainly a credit to Hampton High School and Academy.

Of the approximately 50% who do not further advance their formal education we find the following division.

Percentage in unskilled trades	13½
Percentage Married (Girls)	14
Percentage Machinist and Skilled Trades	13½
Percentage in business	6

From this data it seems that about 27% of our graduates enter skilled or unskilled manual trades. Just what can we do that will help this 27%?

It seems that classes in manual skills should become a part of our curriculum if our school is to serve 100% of its pupils. There are now established good courses in cabinet making, in metal work, in auto mechanics, in electricity. Engine lathe work and mechanical drawing are also offered in many schools. If "Education is teaching pupils to do better than which they will do anyway" certainly we should help train this group. Teachers are being trained for this work in our teachers' colleges. It is possible for these men to teach other subjects as well, so that during the first two or three years of the work no teacher solely for this course would be necessary. It is my recommendation that one or two years of mechanic arts be introduced next year in our schools. The equipment to be sure, would cost something but by various means, much of it may be received at reasonable prices just at this time of national emergency. While only larger cities and towns are now using their school equipment as training classes for national defense, there is a possibility that Hampton schools might be so used if we had the equipment.

All the citizens of the town are proud of its athletic teams. Especially is Coach Sulloway to be congratulated upon the basketball team. Its first year in the field, playing with teams of long experience, its record is a remarkable one. It is a credit to the Academy that it is developing a girls' basketball team with Mrs. Stevens as coach.

We expect that this team also will have a fine record. Games won are important but far more so is the spirit of the team and of the school. In both, Hampton High School is successful.

THE MUSIC DEPARTMENT

The following paragraphs are excerpts from Mrs. Coombs' report:

"In the elementary schools our work continues to consist of tune, tone, rhythm and appreciation. We continue to teach folk dances, rhythm instruments, and song games in rhythm work. Sight reading prepares the pupils for a larger self expression in the Junior and Senior High Schools.

'It was to be expected that a change in the Junior High School would somewhat effect our chorus music. In past years the ninth grade pupils have taken the initiative in all music work. The eighth grade pupils are just beginning to assume the responsibilities of leadership, and I believe another year will see the problem solved. Raychel Burnham has just started to assist in accompanying at the piano.

"I would suggest that another year there be two choruses—Freshman and Sophomores in one class, and Juniors and Seniors in another. In this way all music can be used and graded. I believe the girls' and boys' glee clubs could well be left as they now are—all four classes together.

"The band and orchestra are steadily improving. The band has been playing for the basketball games. Its members are delighted to have it included in the life of the school. I wish a like activity might be devised for the orchestra. A new departure, drum majorettes, has been added to the band. These young ladies have been training themselves, but are now asking for instruction. I have not as yet solved this problem.

"As usual, last spring, our groups were represented at the All New England Music Festival in Provincetown, and both orchestra and band participated in the State Music Festival in Laconia. Several pupils from Durham Public School participated with our pupils and were a great help."

With Mrs. Coombs in charge of the music of the Hampton Schools we are assured of continued high calibre in the work of that department. Her success is recognized by pupils, teachers and the citizens of the town.

THE HEALTH DEPARTMENT

The physical health of our school children is in the care of Miss Frances Smith. She has worked carefully and harmoniously with the teachers. Her work is invaluable to us in maintaining a healthy school population. Her report follows:

"The results of physical examinations for the current year, and types of defects found and corrected may be seen in the figures below. Dr. Wayne Bryer, the school physician, examined grades one and five and the football teams at both the Centre and High Schools. As usual, home visits have been made as often as possible to cooperate with parents in the correction of defects, and in checking on types of illnesses.

"This year's dental clinic is now in progress with Dr. Harold Pierson as school dentist. Two hundred and seventy-two children took advantage of the examinations at school. One hundred and sixty-five children are having complete dental repair. This work is being done in Dr. Pierson's office.

"We are grateful for the fine support of many organizations in various undertakings. The Hampton Red Cross and Parent-Teacher Association have been generous in their donations to the dental clinic. Many underweight and undernourished children are having daily hot lunch.

A few children are having milk at recess. These are provided by a fund to which the Monday Club and Parent-Teacher Association are generous contributors. The Cod Liver Oil Fund has been sufficient this year to provide an added number of babies and children with this benefit. The Parent-Teacher Association, the Legion Auxiliary, and the Monday Club have all given for this."

Following are examination figures:

Enlarged tonsils	31	Corrected	2
Visual defects	24	Corrected	10
10% underweight	29
Pupils taken to the Doctor for treatment	10
Pupils taken to eye Doctor or clinic	9
Pupils taken to other clinics	8
Pupils at town diphtheria clinic	5
Pupils taken to hospitals	2
No. of pupils examined by doctor	142
No. of pupils examined by nurse	165

Parents interested in the schools and their welfare mean much to teachers and pupils alike. When school officers know that they have the support of an interested group of citizens, much can be accomplished. I bespeak for the Parent-Teacher Association the active cooperation of all parents and citizens of Hampton. It will do much for your school.

The rapidly changing social, economic and political conditions of the world in its present upheaval must have their effects upon school practices and school objectives. While there are eternal truths which must always be taught the coming generations, it seems evident that a realignment of emphasis must come about in educational programs.

The school of America has always taught democracy. It has taught democracy by its practice of equality for all—ability alone distinguishing one pupil's place from that of his fellows. It has taught democracy by studying the stories of great heroes, by learning the great truths which controlled the lives of these heroes. It has taught democracy by implanting in the young minds a devout respect for religion and for religious thought. It has, in the later school years, placed the Constitution and the great documents of the democracy as required study. These are but beginnings however.

When our children leave our schools they will be immediately faced with a conflict of governmental theory. Unless they are thoroughly acquainted with the foundations of democracy they will be confused. Unless they are trained to a deeper consciousness of the privileges and responsibilities of American citizenship, our school will be neglecting its present chief obligation. For this reason we shall ask the support of the citizens for increased emphasis upon certain subjects. There must be more teaching of the resources of our land. There must be more time spent in studying our social relations one with another. Daily it is becoming more important that people know how to live together. There must be a more definite preparation for the skilled trades. We have tended to over-emphasize mental skill and disregard manual skill. It is the trained hand that our situation in the present and immediate future demands. The schools must help to meet this demand. We must become more definite in our school work. To this end we ask your aid.

You, as a board, have been ever helpful to me in administering your schools. For this, I wish to express my thanks. Many changes are ahead. Rapidly changing world conditions mean equal changes in school curricula and organization. With your counsel, I am certain we shall meet new problems successfully.

Respectfully submitted,

ROY W. GILLMORE,

Superintendent of Schools.
